

ROMANCE DEAD, DOLLY DEPARTS

Woman Tires of Life as Wife of Boiler-maker.

Dolly has gone. The life of a boiler-maker's wife failed to fill her romance-loving soul with joy, and after three years of the cramped, close, narrow little groove of the boiler-maker's home, she has fled.

William H. Aschenbach, the husband, has asked the police to find his wife, Dolly, who left her home, 215 Randall street, Langdon, last Tuesday. Instead of her bright, cheery face to greet him last Tuesday evening, when he returned from work, the husband found the following note:

"My Dear Husband—I am going far away. I told you I could not put up with things any longer. Everything is getting worse. Your wife, Dolly."

With Dolly, according to her husband, has gone a neat little sum of money—quite sufficient to buy a new Easter hat, although it was originally given to her by her husband to pay a bill amounting to $40 or $50. He says he thinks she has more money with her also, and by this time she is probably speeding far, far away.

Mr. and Mrs. Aschenbach spent last Sunday visiting friends in Baltimore. Mrs. Dolly seemed particularly happy, and, according to her husband, was always apparently contented with her home life. They have been married three years. Mrs. Aschenbach is nineteen years old, and before her marriage was Miss Cornelia Worton.

She had been employed in a tailoring establishment for the past two weeks, and the husband believes she saved the money earned there for her sudden departure.

COMMITTEES OF SENATE ARE CHANGED BY DEATH

The Senate has agreed to changes in a number of standing committees. These have been made necessary by the death of Senator Proctor. Senator Hansbrough of North Dakota becomes chairman of the Committee on Agriculture and Forestry, to succeed Senator Proctor, and Senator Nelson of Minnesota succeeds Senator Hansbrough as chairman of the Committee on Public Lands.

In place of Senator Nelson, Senator Warner becomes chairman of the Committee on the Mississippi River and its Tributaries, and is excused from the chairmanship of the Committee on Industrial Expositions. Senator Burkett of Nebraska goes to Agriculture and Forestry, and Senator Guggenheim obtains membership on the Committee on Postoffices and Postroads.

Changes in the chairmanships will take place April 1.

EXPLOSIVE FORCE OF WATER.

Water, looked upon as the tamest of liquids, is as great an explosive as dynamite under certain conditions. In one day water breaks up more earth and rock than all the gunpowder, gun cotton and dynamite in the world do in a year. These explosives can be controlled by human agency, but water does not heed itself accountable to man. It runs into the ground, expands, expands, and splits the soil into little pieces. Finding a crack in a huge rock it repeats the same process, forcing it asunder. If frozen in the pores of a tree it often explodes with a report like a gunshot and the force of a dynamite bomb.—Popular Mechanics.

THE LEADING THOUGHT.

"Mrs. Hingley is going to give a bridge afternoon for the benefit of the poor."

"Isn't that dear of her! She always gives such lovely prizes!"—Exchange.

LABOR READY FOR FRAY, SAYS PRESIDENT GOMPERS

"It must be remembered that in the last Presidential campaign the workers had less definite issues upon which to crystallize their efforts toward effective action. They have now, in the Supreme Court decision, the batters' and other cases."

This significant statement is made in an editorial by President Gompers in the American Federationist for April. In this editorial President Gompers says that organized labor respects the law, making powers and the judiciary, it has been patient in the face of disappointments, but it knows what is best for it, and expects labor legislation to be promptly passed. "The failure to do this will be accepted by the workers as a challenge to the further exercise of their power."

President Gompers calls attention to the recent protest meeting in this city, and gives warning to lawmakers that there is a limit to the patience of the wage-worker.

CLEANLINESS A FEATURE OF BLUE FRONT MARKET

The more or less general impression that a meat market must of necessity be untidy, odorous, and generally uninviting, has been shattered in a practical and effective manner by the proprietors of the Blue Front Market, at 230 Louisiana avenue. The problem of keeping fresh meats in a sanitary atmosphere and attractive surroundings has been solved.

This particular feature has been a part of the business, and the customers are pleased with the cleanliness which prevails. The aprons and coats of the salesmen are snow white, the scales shine, the meat blocks are unstained, and the large ice box is sweet.

The sanitary arrangements in the curing and sales department of the Blue Front Market are especially noticeable. Many of the products sold at the market are prepared on the premises, and only the best materials are used. Two of the specialties for which the market is noted are the Honey Brand bacon and Honey Brand hams, prepared at the market. Lard, sausage, and other pork products also are of a quality to attract attention.

The Blue Front Market has three "sales days" every week—Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday—and on these occasions special price reductions are made on nearly all of the articles offered for sale.

CARE OF AFFLICTED OBJECT OF TWO BILLS

Bills providing for the establishment of a psecopathic pavilion, for the care of persons suffering from diseases of the brain and nervous system and for a home for feeble-minded, imbecile and idiotic children of the District, are under consideration by the Commissioners.

The bills as drawn provide for the treatment of indigent residents of the District only. Commissioner West has recommended that the word "indigent" be stricken out, and that provision be made for the care and treatment of those able and willing to pay for their maintenance.

His suggestion will be submitted to the Board of Charities for consideration and report.

An appropriation of $100,000 is requested for the psecopathic pavilion, to be erected on a site owned by the District between Brightwood avenue and Fourteenth street. Fifty thousand dollars is the appropriation asked for the home for feeble-minded children, which building it is proposed to erect at Blue Plains, on land owned by the District.

MEMORIAL FOR ITALIAN.

Memorial services for the late Edmondo de Amicis, the great Italian author, will be held at Pythian Temple Sunday at 7:30 o'clock. The principal speakers will be Prof. C. W. A. Vediz, dean of the College of Political Science at George Washington University, and R. Cordifery, of New York. The public is invited. The chairman of the committee in charge is L. Amateis, and the secretary, A. Sichi, 80 O street northwest.

FILIPINOS IN CONGRESS ENTERTAIN MEMBERS

With naught but words of praise for the hospitality shown them while they have been in this country, and expressing gratitude to the American nation for what it has done for the Philippines, Benita Legarda and Pablo Ocampo, the Philippine commissioners to Congress, spoke to a distinguished assemblage of guests in the Arlington Hotel last night.

Secretary of War William H. Taft was toastmaster at the function, which was given by the two Philippine commissioners to members of both houses of Congress and other members and officials connected with the Philippine commission in Washington.

Vice President Fairbanks, Senator Chester A. Long of Kansas, Major Gen. J. Franklin Bell, U. S. A., Representative Bourke Cockran of New York, and W. Morgan Shuster, secretary of the Philippine Commission, addressed the gathering with expressions of good will toward the 8,000,000 inhabitants of the Philippine Islands. All expressed faith in the hope that the United States Congress would continue its present broad policy toward the islands and that all legislation necessary to the welfare of the people would be enacted.

GOOD PLACE FOR HIM.

"What? You don't mean to say you are going to move out to Swamphurst?"

"I am. I consider it an ideal place."

"Huh! You want to read the papers. There's more sickness there than in any other town in this vicinity."

"I know it; I'm a physician."
